

Crossing a River

Two men and two women have to cross a river. They only have one canoe. The canoe can hold two people and everyone can paddle. What is the fewest number of trips it will take to get everyone across the river?

Thanks to Peter Liljedahl for this puzzle