

ANNOUNCEMENTS FOR

Mon. Oct. 23rd, 2023

Hey Eagles, we've got some exciting news to kickstart this first five day school week in a long time, which I am sure we are so thrilled about! Carson's athletic program wants to give a huge shout out to two exceptional athletes, Evan Preto and Jack Spencer. Evan's coaches have nothing but praise for him, saying, "He is an exceptional player, always working his hardest. Great work Evan. We also want to give a huge shoutout to Jack Spencer! With his fantastic foot skills, ball control, and an amazing sense of the game, he's a standout player who never backs down. Go, Jack, go!

Calgary University will be here today at 3:00 pm outside counselling by the fishbowl.

Join the Carson Better Together Club in scaring hunger away this Halloween! Please bring canned or non-perishable food to the photography room on October 31st, all food will be donated to the North Shore Women's Shelter."

Student Council would like to inform you that there will be a costume contest happening at lunch on Halloween day in the agora. There will be candy involved, and prizes for the best costumes, so be sure to dress FANGtastically! We hope to see you there.

Student Council will also be supporting intramurals again this year, starting with basketball next week! If you are interested in creating a team to play in this year's intramurals basketball tournament, there will be a sign up table on Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday of this week at lunch in the agora. More detailed information can be found on your grade Teams.

On October 27th, which is this Friday, the charity club will be selling bags of candies and a Halloween themed mini gift. These bags are only 3 dollars, and will be delivered to you on Halloween day. You can also anonymously purchase one for your friend and they will be delivered to them on the day of! Proceeds go to we deliver period to help women obtain basic hygiene products
