

CARSON GRAHAM
SECONDARY

Talk at the Top – at Grouse Mountain on Saturday January 28th, 2017

Talk at the Top is a youth-led, youth-driven summit on mental health leadership and advocacy for high school students from the North Shore and throughout the Sea to Sky Corridor. Through shared dialogue and collaboration, delegates come together to develop leadership skills, increase their mental health knowledge and learn how to decrease the stigma that surrounds mental illness in their schools and communities.

If you are interested in signing up for this experience and earn service hours please register on the following link <https://www.jack.org/talkatthetop2017>.

