Dear Carson Graham Community,

Staff have been working hard over the last couple of weeks to welcome students back into the building. We would like to remind everyone of next week's schedule and some other important information:

On the first day of school, all students are to report to the school at the time indicated below for their particular grade level. Students will receive timetables and other important information. Additionally, student photos for the yearbook and ID Cards will be taken.

On Wednesday, Thursday and Friday of the first week, all students must attend their Advisory block at 9:12am. This is mandatory for attendance data and the dissemination of important information regarding technology, calendar and other details vital for student success. Advisory will be followed by an altered schedule for classes until 3:00 pm.

Course Changes

Changes will be made in the following priority order:

1. Resolving incomplete timetables and timetable errors
2. Scheduling new students
3. Addressing requests for timetable changes

Timetable changes will be considered in priority order once an email is received from a parent by the grade counsellor. Until a counsellor has made an official change and a new timetable has been produced, students are required to attend all classes listed on their timetable.
