Viewing at Seycove Secondary of ‘Krow’s Transformation’

Seycove Secondary School is proud to host a screening of Krow's Transformation at Seycove Secondary School in the Vortex Theatre (Drama Room) on:

Tuesday, February 11, 3:45pm-5:45pm.

Due to the limited number of seats, this opportunity is being made available to the Seycove family of schools community and it's staff members. The film will be followed by a Q&A panel with the filmmaker, Seycove's GSA members and possibly several cast members. Please email: seycove@sd44.ca if you would like to attend this viewing.

Krow's TRANSformation is a documentary that follows Canadian trans supermodel, Krow. The film documents the three-year journey of Krow as he transitions from a successful 'female' model to his true authentic self. The documentary follows Krow from his very first hormone treatment through to his first modelling debut at Paris Fashion week, walking as a male model for Louis Vuitton. Krow has gone on to walk for the likes of Balmain and Alexander McQueen and was the first transgender model to grace the cover of L'Uomo Vogue.

The film is made by North Vancouver resident Gina Lazarowich. The film also features many members of the North Vancouver community, including Kas Baker and his family.
