International Day of Pink

Next Wednesday, April 10th, 2024 is the International Day of Pink.

The follow excerpt is from the Wikipedia article:

“The International Day of Pink is a worldwide anti-bullying and anti-homophobia event held annually during the second week of April.^[1] Though similar to Pink Shirt Day (held in February) in that it also seeks to end all bullying, the Day of Pink is more specifically aimed towards anti-LGBTQ+ bullying.^[2]

The event was sparked when a gay Canadian high-school student was witnessed by two fellow students as being bullied at their school for wearing a pink shirt. The two students got everyone at their school to wear pink the following day as a gesture of support, inspiring Jer's Vision (now Canadian Centre for Gender and Sexual Diversity) to establish the International Day of Pink.^[3]

In 2012, over 8 million people participated.^{[4][5]} It is run by youth volunteers in Ottawa, Ontario, Canada.

History

The Day of Pink was sparked in 2007 when students David Shepherd and Travis Price saw a student being bullied for wearing a pink shirt in their Central Kings Rural High School in Nova Scotia, Canada. Shepherd and Price decided to show support for the student by getting everyone at their school to wear pink the following day.^{[3][2]}

This initiative inspired some youth at Jer's Vision (now Canadian Centre for Gender and Sexual Diversity), who thereby founded International Day of Pink, an effort to support their peers internationally with resources and ways to make their schools safer.^{[6][7][8][9]}”

Thank you for working together with us at Cove Cliff to make a safe and inclusive for the 2SLGBTQ+ members of our community, and to end homophobia and transphobia in our community and beyond.
