

Justin Ogilvie

July 8 to 13, 2018 • Ages 13 - 18

Talented artists ages 13-18 will explore drawing, painting and printmaking with Justin Ogilvie in the beautiful setting of Paradise Valley. Students work in small studio groups, guided in their production of contemporary art works by a team of art specialist teachers. All students are encouraged to develop a body of work throughout the week that can be added to their personal portfolio. This week long studio program is well balanced with outdoor recreation and open studio time.

Justin Ogilvie

Justin Ogilvie lives and works in Vancouver, BC, Canada. He received a MFA from the University of Alberta in 2013, and a BFA from Emily Carr University of Art and Design in 2000. Ogilvie's painting practice explores various tensions between traditional and contemporary modes of representational painting, addressing within his own work themes of escape, identity, indifference, and abjection. Ogilvie's career consists of both exhibiting and teaching. Ogilvie currently teaches at Emily Carr University of Art and Design as a sessional instructor. Ogilvie is the recipient of numerous provincial and private awards.
