Monday Message

Dear Ross Road Families,

Welcome to the final full week of school! Last week, some talented intermediate students performed in the Talent Show. These students did an amazing job and wowed us with their singing, dancing, piano and violin playing, and soccer skills.

Thank you-Coast Salish Anthem

We wanted to extend a thank you to families that joined us for the Coast Salish Anthem on the field last week. Tomorrow is National Indigenous Peoples Day. We have school school-wide activities taking place to celebrate indigenous culture, history, and art including a directed drawing of Raven taught by artist, Gordon Dick. Classes will also learn the Metis jig, and have an indigenous legend shared by a grade 7 leader.

Thank you-Rainbow Run June 17th

Last Friday, students enjoyed participating in the rainbow run and dance party. Thank you to the We R Us Club for hosting and organizing. Trustee, Kulvir Mann, also joined us.
