

Child Fitness Tax Receipt Request Form

Starting in 2007, the Government of Canada allows a non-refundable tax credit on eligible amounts of up to $500 paid by parents to register a child in an eligible program of physical activity.

The following conditions apply to tax receipt eligibility:

- The child in question must be under 16 years of age at any point during the period of participation.
- Fees for accommodation, travel and food are not eligible.
- Activities occurring as part of regular school physical education programming are not eligible.
