This week- Wednesday, January 29th: Celebrate Family Literacy Day - Marci will join us to teach money games we can use with our children. Learn how to teach good money skills.

Thursdays: Last Thursday, we made origami rats for Lunar New Year.

This week - Thursday, January 30th: Let's celebrate Family Literacy Day! Alyssa Hamer, the NS Literacy Outreach Coordinator, and Sarah Tarcea from North Vancouver City Library (NVCL) are joining us.

On Thursday, we'll also have our regular activities: News Headlines, Reading Group, and tutoring (you can work on ideas for NVCL Small Grants).

This program is a partnership between Capilano University and St. John the Evangelist Anglican Church, with partnership support from North Shore Neighbourhood House, North Shore Multicultural Society, North Vancouver City Library, and Queen Mary Elementary School. We gratefully thank all those who make the program possible: our major funders, the City of North Vancouver and the BC Ministry of Advanced Education, as well as all our dedicated tutors and other volunteers.
