

Indigenous Education

North Vancouver School District

September 28th- Oct 2nd, 2020

Orange Shirt Day
September 30th, 2020

What is your school doing to honour and recognize Orange Shirt Day?

The NVSD Indigenous Education team would love to see what is happening at the different schools. Send your pictures, examples and write ups to abed@sd44.ca.

See a new Primary Resource for Orange Shirt Day written by Dallas Guss by clicking here or see the NVSD Indigenous Education K-12 Orange Shirt Day lesson here.

Want to read more about Pedagogical Considerations for Teaching About Residential Schools?

Want to read more about continuing the learning about Orange Shirt Day? Read this article from the The First Nations, Métis, Inuit Education Association of Ontario. Find the link here.

Colouring Page

reference

Holly Pichette, Swampy Cree/French Canadian, is a visual artist who created this colouring page for Orange Shirt Day. It is free to use and available in English, Moose Cree, Anishnaabemowin, Mi'kmaq and French.

You can download the colouring pages here.

Are you interested in participating in a research project?

Opportunity to Participate in UBC Research

Outline of the Research Project

Purpose of Research:

The Role of Settler Educators with Indigenous Perspective and Indigenous Ways of Knowing and Their Practice in the North Vancouver School District.

Research Team:

This project is part of Brad Baker's Doctoral Research at the University of British Columbia. Co-investigators with Brad are: Dr. Michael Marker, Dr. Jo-Ann Archibald and Dr. Michelle Stack.

Confidential Survey:

The research team is seeking 15 to 25 participants to participate in a confidential survey. This survey will have no identifiers of who participated or who responded to questions.

If you are interested in participating in the confidential survey, please email abed@sd44.ca to request a copy of the survey.

The survey will be sent to your home school and will include a return envelope. The research team will not be aware of who received a survey.

Survey will be available from October 1st to October 21st.